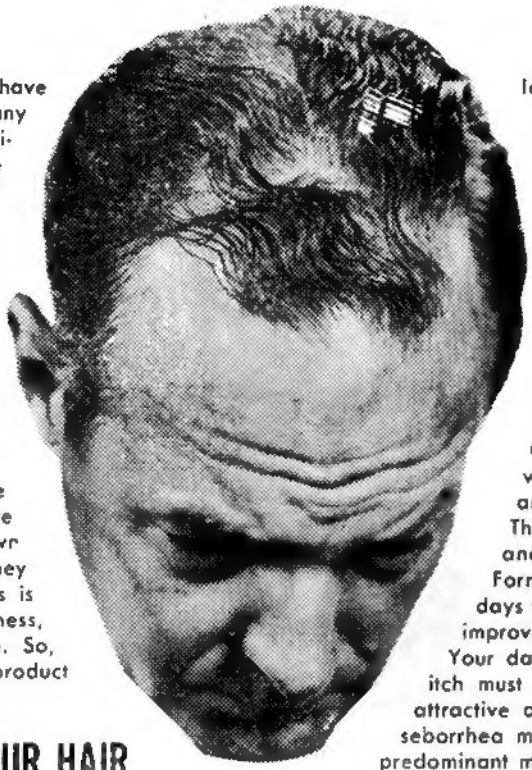
WILL YOU SPEND $2 TO SAVE YOUR HAIR?



How many hard-earned dollars have you spent to save your hair? How many hair tonics, gadgets, restorers, electrical devices, have you tried in the last few years — with no success? How many times after an unsuccessful hair-growing attempt have you sworn not to spend another cent on another hair treatment?

Yet, you buy the next product that comes on the market with hair-growing claims.

CAN YOU GROW HAIR?

Doctors who have spent a lifetime studying hair and hair growth have concluded that nothing now known can grow hair on a bald head. They also believe that most all hair loss is the result of male pattern baldness, about which nothing can be done. So, if your hair loss is of this type, no product can help you.

HOW TO SAVE YOUR HAIR

But your hair loss may be caused by a common scalp disease called seborrhea. Read the rest of this statement carefully because if you have the symptoms of seborrhea the following information may add years to the life of your hair.

Itchy scalp, hair loss, dandruff, very dry or oily scalp, are the symptoms of this scalp disease. Not every case of seborrhea results in baldness, but doctors now know that men and women who have this scalp disease usually lose their hair.

Seborrhea is believed caused by three parasitic germ organisms (staphylococcus albus, pityrosporum ovale, microbacillus). These germs first infect the sebacious glands and later spread to the hair follicles. The hair follicles atrophy, no longer can produce new hairs. The result is "thinning" hair and baldness.

But, today seborrhea can be controlled — quickly and effectively — by treating your scalp with the amazing scalp medicine called Ward's Formula.

DOUBLE MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

In seconds, Ward's Formula kills these three parasitic germ organisms retarding normal growth. This has been proven in scientific tests by a world-famous testing laboratory (copy of laboratory report sent on request). Ward's removes infectious dandruff, stops scalp itch, brings hair-nourishing blood to the scalp, tends to normalize very dry or oily scalp. Ward's Formula corrects the ugly symptoms of seborrhea, stops the hair loss it causes. Ward's Formula has been tried by more than 550,000 men and women on our famous Double-Your-Money-Back-Guarantee. Only 1.9% of these men and women were not helped by Ward's and asked for their double refund. This is truly an amazing performance. Treat your scalp with Ward's Formula. Try it at our risk. In only 10 days you must see and feel the marked improvement in your scalp and hair. Your dandruff must be gone. Your scalp itch must stop. Your hair must look more attractive and alive. Your hair loss due to seborrhea must stop. If your hair loss is the predominant male pattern baldness type, which neither our product nor anything else will help, accept Double Your Money Back for your trouble. If your hair loss is due to seborrhea, you must be delighted with the results. You must be completely satisfied, or simply return the unused portion for your double refund. We take all the risk. So why delay? Delay may cost your hair

"DREAM OR REALITY"

A mother was standing in front of her house watching her son enjoying roller skating. Suddenly another boy came up to her son and shouted:

"You hit me on the face last night. I begged you to stop doing it. You wouldn't stop and you hurt me very much. Now I'm going to get even with you."

The second boy started to hit the woman's son and she ran over and immediately stopped this unexpected onslaught upon her son. Then the other boy's mother came and there was some arguing over the incident. Two days later the mother of the belligerent child came to the other mother with an apology and an explanation:

"My husband and I were deeply shocked over what had happened. We figured there must be some reason for Paul's actions. He insisted that your son hit him during the night. We finally figured out that Paul had a dream. To his childish mind the dream was real. What happened in the dream was something that seemed to take place in real life. We are very sorry for what happened. Rest assured it won't take place again. We had a long talk with Paul about dreams."

This is not an unusual incident among children and even with primitive porters. An explorer tells the following story:

He and his porters made camp for the night. All rested very comfortably. In the morning one porter refused to go and carry his load. Why? He complained that the explorer had been very mean. Every other porter had rested. But he had to carry five times the regular load. Now he was exhausted and could go no further. It was impossible to convince this porter that he had been dreaming. He even described the river he had crossed.

Some people dream every night and others dream at various intervals. The psychologists are interested in the contents of dreams and offer to analyze them for us. Though they do differ on their meanings and interpretations, some people have a continued dream about the same subject. Thus a teen ager may dream about his adventures on the Planet Mars. A middle aged man may dream he is a knight on the Days of Old, and he battles dragons and unicorns to show his bravery. And there are even people who enjoy dreaming. Gives them a chance to live a life of adventure and thrills.

Suppose night after night you had the same continued dream: That you were on an Asteroid. In charge of a space ship. In the morning you awaken and get ready to go to work. Your job, alas, is down in the basement of a big department store. All day long you sit in the stock room and check the items on a sheet a paper. To your way of thinking this is drab monotonous work. You actually long to go home and fall asleep. Dream again that you are Captain Serachio in charge of Space Ship 2X.

Now which is your real life and which is your dream life? Is your real life that of the clerk taking stock? And your dream life that of Captain Serachio? Or could it be the other way Which is the Dream? Which is Reality? Way back in the Fourth Century B.C. this bothered a Chinese Philosopher by the name of Chuang Tzu or Chuang Chou. The dates tentatively given for him are 369 B.C. to 286 BC. That makes him a contemporary of another great Chinese Philosopher by the name of Mencius. We know very little about his life. Seems he was a native of the little state of Meng. Most of his life was spent as a hermit. There is a story that King Wei of Ch'u heard about this remarkable man. So he sent messengers with gifts to Chuang Tzu, asking him to come to his state and become the prime minsiter. But our philosopher prefered his own type of life and remarked: "Go away. Do not defile me. I prefer the enjoyment of my own free will."

This is what he wrote about Dreaming and it is put into the English language:

Once upon a time I dreamed I was a butterfly, Flittering hither and thither, To All intents and purposes I was a butterfly.

I was conscious only of following my fancies as a butterfly,

I was unconscious of my individuality as a man.

Suddenly I awakened and there I lay myself again, I do not know whether I was then dreaming I was a butterfly,

Or whether I am now a butterfly dreaming that it is a man.

Between a man and a butterfly, There is necessarily a Barrier.

And the Transition is called Metempsychosis.

Now let us go back to the dream you had of being a captain of the Space Ship 2X. You are now on the Asteroid Davosa. And you are talking to your friend, Major Bloomis, head of the Celestial Charting Service.

"Every night when I go to sleep I dream. I see myself as just an ordinary clerk in a department store. All day long I do the same thing. Take stock until my eyes see red spots. All this takes place back in the twentieth century. I wish I knew why I always have the same dream. It sort of frightens me but I just can't tell you why."

"Maybe I can suggest an answer," smiles Major Bloomis. "I have been reading our latest study on Dreams by Nushin Gosato of the Venutian School of Mind Experts. Seems he has come up with something entirely new about dreams. He suggests the awful possibility that the dream could be reality and the reality could be a dream."

So you start to sweat and you get upset. Because this could mean only one thing. You force yourself to say it.

"Then this is the dream and what I dream is real. I am only a clerk and not the famous Serachio? Here we are in the twenty third century. But I really belong back in the twentieth century? That's something terrible."

"Forget it," continues Major Bloomis. "You know how Philosophers are. Seems when we are discontented they make us more discontented. And when we are happy they make us discontented. Always looking for something we can't find. I wonder if this Nushin Gosato ever did some dreaming himself. Would be interesting if we could find out."

And at that very moment the great Venutian expert has his own problems. He hasn't had time to read the proof sheets of his latest book. For three consecutive weeks he has had the same dream. He hates to confide in his wife but he needs somebody to tell his worries to and it might as well be his better half. So across the breakfast table he empties his heart.

"It is driving me mad! Every night the same dream. I see myself as a worm. Crawling around the damp ground. Meeting and talking to other worms. And always the same fear. That a fisherman will find me and use me for bait. It is terrible. I don't know what to do. Please help me!"

Shows you that even a Philosopher when the chips are down will turn to his wife for help. He could consult his own writings but he feels his wife understands him best. She smiles.

"A worm, my dear? That is what you said. Did it every dawn upon you that at times you act like a worm. Remember last month when I asked you to take me for a vacation to Saturn? It was like a worm you acted. And then, remember, last week when I wanted a new dress? Told me the old one would do. Your dream is simple. Your inner nature is that of a worm. Be a real Venutian and you will not have those dreams again."

So her advice sounds simple. Nushin Gosato does take his wife on that vacation, and he buys her a new dress. But there is just one trouble. He still dreams he is a worm, and at that very moment, in a garden, one worm is telling seven other worms his problem.

"Every night I dream I am a Venutian. Not a Martian nor a plain Earthling. Of all things to be I find myself a Philosopher with a lot of trouble. Seems this Philosopher dreams he is is a worm. Now just what am I? Am I a worm? Am I a Venutian? Which is the dream and which is the reality? It would be terrible if the Venutian part of me found the worm part of me and decided to go fishing! I am losing weight worring over this."

"Stop it," says worm number two. "We are your friends and we will be witnesses to a simple fact. You are not a Venutian. You are a plain worm. You probably are having nightmares. That is what you get for eating too many of those Ishbi leaves."

For the time being the worm is satisfied. For the time being the Venutian is satisfied. For the time being Captain Serachio is satisfied. And for the time being the clerk taking stock is even satisfied. But which is the dream? And which is the reality? Can you tell? How can you be certain that all this isn't just one big dream? And to make things even a little more difficult: If you dream you are dreaming can the dreamed one then in the dream have another dream? You figure that one out.
